Racial Justice Summit looks for bridges
Racial Justice Summit talks about equity

January 31 - February 6, 2019

For more than 15 years, Bhramon’s Legislative Session was “Building a Brighter Future.” The nursery was not just a place for children to play, but an educational opportunity for parents to learn about early childhood development and best practices. The program was designed to support families and help them build a strong foundation for their children’s success.

However, the program was facing challenges. Funding was limited, and there was a lack of support from local organizations. The staff worked tirelessly to maintain the program, but it was clear that something needed to change.

That’s when the community came together. They recognized the importance of the program and rallied around it. Local businesses donated supplies and equipment, and volunteers stepped up to help with everything from cleaning to teaching.

The program not only served the children, but it also served the community. It helped to break down barriers and bring people together.

“This is what building a brighter future looks like,” said one volunteer.

With the help of the community, the program continued to thrive. And the children benefited. They learned, they grew, and they became ready for the world ahead.

But the work is not done. There is still so much to do to ensure that every child has the opportunity to succeed.

We need your support. Please consider donating or volunteering. Together, we can make a difference in the lives of children across our community.

Thank you for your commitment to building a brighter future.”
