3RD ANNUAL PITTSBURGH HOUSING JUSTICE SUMMIT

SATURDAY, MAR. 28TH, 2026 9AM-4PM FRICK FINE ARTS BUILDING

IS YOUR RENT TOO HIGH?
IS STUDENT HOUSING DEEPENING YOUR DEBT?
DOES YOUR LANDLORD ADDRESS NEEDED REPAIRS?

Join us to learn how you can fight for your right to safe, secure, AFFORDABLE housing. Over 1 million PA residents are rent-burdened and over 12,000 are unhoused. We cannot wait for politicians to respond to our demands. It's up to us to build the city we need.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: JASON SPICER Ph.D., Baruch College at the City University of New York (CUNY) and Graduate School and University Center at CUNY. Jason has worked nationally and locally in New York City to advance economic development and housing security. He will draw from his recent book, Co-operative Enterprise in Comparative Perspective: Exceptionally Un-American?, to share lessons about cooperative housing, community land trusts, and urban movement building for housing justice.
