"Commemorating the 75th and 10th
Anniversaries of The Lower Hill and Penn Plaza Mass Displacements"

Dislodgings: The record of racialized displacement in the U.S.

Keynote Address

Professor Edward Goetz

The symposium commemorates the 10th anniversary of the eviction of residents from the Penn Plaza Apartments in East Liberty and the 75th anniversary of the demolition of the Lower Hill and displacement of 8000 residents. Keynote speaker, Professor Edward Goetz, will speak on the relationships between race and urban displacement in the U.S. housing policy. Panels of faculty, practitioners, and community advocates will present analyses and opportunities for dialogue on the impacts of displacement on residents and explore strategies for reducing housing insecurity and displacement in our region.

Co-sponsors: University of Pittsburgh University Center for Social and Urban Research (UCSUR); Pittsburgh Human Rights City Alliance, Hill District Consensus Group, Remaking Cities Institute-Carnegie Mellon University; University of Pittsburgh Department of Sociology, School of Public and International Affairs (SPIA), and Urban Studies Program; and NAACP Pittsburgh Branch
